Insured Journey

Any travel other than for professional or commercial purposes, undertaken by an insured person between the point of departure and the place of destination, of a distance greater than 100km from the place of domicile of the Insured Party, where the journey consists of at least 3 consecutive nights (located outside the country of residence of the VISA PRESTIGE Card Holder), as stated on the travel ticket of the insured person, on condition that at least 30% of the total price was paid using a VISA PRESTIGE Card.

Covered Journey

1 - Death / Total Permanent Disability Cover - Public Transport. VISA PRESTIGE Card Holders are insured in the event of an accident while travelling abroad if they use a "means of public transport", provided that at least 30% of the total price of the journey has been paid using a VISA PRESTIGE Card.

Insurance can be claimed in the event that the insured person suffers an accident during an "Insured Journey", where:

- a) he/she is a passenger on a means of public transport, including while getting on and off said means of transport
- b) he/she is hit by this means of public transport.

2 - Foreign travel may not exceed 90 consecutive days.

SECTION II - EXTENT OF COVER

Article 1 - Purpose of the insurance

Under this Contract, the Company undertakes to provide the Insured Party or Parties with the cover stipulated in these

General Terms and Conditions, for covered journeys in respect of which at least 30% of the costs have been paid for or reserved using a valid VISA PRESTIGE Card issued by POST Finance.

Effective cover start date

The cover provided under this Contract becomes effective on the start date of the Card held by the Insured Party.

End of cover

Cover shall be immediately terminated as of right in the event that the Insured Card is not renewed, is blocked or cancelled or, in the event of termination of the insurance Contract concluded by the Policy Holder with the insurer, on the date on which the insurance Contract comes to an end following the termination.

Please note that any payment for travel made prior to termination of the insurance contract concluded by the Policy Holder shall be included for cover according to the conditions of the Contract.

Article 2 - Cover

2.1. Cancellation and interruption of travel

Extent of cover

The Company provides cover for up to 5,000 EUR per claim per person and up to 10,000 EUR per claim per group of insured persons, for the amount of the costs owed by the Insured Party in the event of cancellation, interruption or transformation of the journey caused by any of the following:

- 1) an illness or bodily injury affecting the Insured Party, his/her spouse, a close relative or a person living under the same roof as the Insured Party, including persons for whom the Insured Party is responsible or holds guardianship, and which, for medical reasons, prevents the scheduled journey from being made;
- 2) the death of the Insured Party, his/her spouse, a close relative up to second degree or a person living under the same roof as the Insured Party, including persons for whom the Insured Party is responsible or holds guardianship;
- 3) complications arising from the pregnancy of the Insured Party, provided that the Insured Party was no more than three months pregnant at the time the travel agreement was concluded and no less than six months pregnant at the time of departure;
- 4) compulsory quarantine or compulsory attendance by the Insured Party as a member of the Jury in a Court of Law or as a witness before the court, provided that the Insured Party was not aware of this situation at the time of concluding the travel agreement;
- 5) the hijacking, hostage taking or kidnapping of the Insured Party, his/her spouse, a close relative up to second degree or a person living under the same roof as the Insured Party, including persons for whom the Insured Party is responsible or holds guardianship;
- 6) the cancellation or limitation of public transport owing to strike action, unless an alternative means of transport is made available;
- 7) the compulsory attendance of the Insured Party required by the police pursuant to a break-in at the place of residence or workplace of the Insured Party;
- 8) significant property damage at the place of residence or workplace of the Insured Party owing to fire, stormy weather, flooding, landslide or malicious acts, provided that the damage:
 - was unforeseeable at the time of concluding the travel agreement;
 - prevents the Insured Party from undertaking the planned journey;
 - occurs within 30 days prior to the initially scheduled date of departure;
- 9) theft or total immobilisation of the Insured Party's private vehicle at the time of departure;
- 10) delay at the scheduled boarding time stated in the travel agreement as a result of being unable to reach the place of boarding due to a delay of more than one hour because of a traffic accident or a case of force majeure on the way to the place of boarding.
- 11) theft and loss of passport(s) in the 48 hours prior to travelling.

Exclusions

Cancellation or interruption of travel caused by the following are excluded from the cover:

- 1) suicide, attempted suicide or acts deliberately caused or provoked by the Insured Party or by the Beneficiary of the contract. The following are considered deliberate acts: a fraudulent, malicious, harmful incident or a wrongful act which, owing to its severity, is counted as deceit;

- 2) drunkenness, the use of narcotics without medical indications, unless the Insured Party or the Beneficiaries are able to establish that the offending state is not the reason behind the bodily injury;
- 3) a nuclear threat, acts of war. The Insured Party shall not be covered as a serviceman/woman in any armed force whatsoever;
- 4) crimes and offences, acts of terrorism or sabotage in which the Insured Party takes active part;
- 5) the flying of aircraft or any aeronautical activity, except as a paying passenger;
- 6) the practice of any sport as a professional, i.e. where earnings as a professional sports person exceed 25% of his/her annual salary;
- 7) participation and training in horse riding events, cycling races and motor vehicle speed races;
- 8) the pregnancy or childbirth of the Insured Party, abortion and its complications, except under the provisions given in point 3) "Extent of cover";
- 9) psychological illnesses, post-traumatic mental illnesses and sexually transmitted diseases;
- 10) bodily injuries following an accident or illness for which medical or paramedical treatment was prescribed by a general practitioner at the time of concluding the travel agreement, unless the general practitioner gives their opinion that there are no contraindications for travelling;
- 11) the insolvency of the Insured Party at the time of reserving the journey;
- 12) the lack or poor condition of the private vehicle intended for the journey;
- 13) administrative issues, vaccination problems or with obtaining a visa or other entry documents.

2.2. Flight delays and/or extended stay/Recosting of tickets.

a) Services covered

1. Flight delays

During a covered journey, the Company will reimburse costs incurred by the Insured Party for meals, refreshments, hotel costs, airport or terminal transfer costs (both directions), up to a maximum of 1,000 EUR per journey (regardless of the number of people), provided that the delay is over 4 hours, counting from the initial time of departure stated on the ticket.

2. Extended stay (in the event of accident, illness or force majeure)

- 1) In the event of accident or illness: if the state of health of the Insured Party is such that he/she is unable to take the planned flight (reserved and confirmed) based on a medical certificate.
- 2) If the Insured Party is stuck abroad for at least 24 hours owing to a case of force majeure: the Company will reimburse up to 150 EUR per day* for 10 days, up to a maximum of 1,500 EUR, representing the reasonable and non-recoverable costs incurred for:
 - hotel accommodation costs and transport costs between the airport and the hotel;
 - meals, drinks and telephone calls.

* maximum amount for all insured persons travelling together

3. Recosting of tickets

The insurance company undertakes to reimburse the Insured Party up to 1,000 EUR for additional costs arising from an upgrade to his/her outward or return plane ticket to a higher class of seating. This cover is acquired in the following cases:

- a. if the departure of a confirmed scheduled flight from any airport is delayed by 4 hours or more, or is cancelled, or if the Insured Person is not permitted to board the aeroplane because of overbooking and if no other means of transport is made available to them within 4 hours of the scheduled departure time of such a flight;
- b. if the Insured Party's connecting flight is missed at the point of transfer owing to the late arrival of the scheduled flight and no other means of continuing his/her journey is made available to the Insured Person within 4 hours of the actual arrival time of the initial flight. In order for the cover to take effect, at least 30% of the "ticket upgrade" costs must be paid using the Visa Prestige Card.

b) Cover conditions

Cover is granted only in the following cases:

1. delay or cancellation of a reserved and confirmed flight listed in an official flight schedule;
2. overbooking preventing the Insured Party from boarding the reserved and confirmed officially scheduled flight;
3. late arrival of a flight listed in an official schedule and on which the Insured Party is travelling preventing the latter from catching a connecting flight;
4. only flights with airlines whose timetables are published in an official schedule shall be subject to this cover. This cover comes in addition to any other compensation paid out by the transporter. It is granted based on the costs actually incurred by the Insured Party.
5. accident and illness of the Insured Party certified by a doctor.

c) Exclusions:

- delays caused to non-scheduled flights (flights not listed in an official flight schedule);
- no reimbursement shall be payable if the delay suffered is less than 4 hours counting from the initial time of departure or arrival (in the case of a connecting flight) of the reserved flight, listed in an official flight schedule;
- no reimbursement shall be payable if the delay is due to strike action or war;

- reimbursement shall be payable in the event of the temporary or definitive withdrawal of an aeroplane from service, as ordered:

- by the airport authorities;
- by the civil aviation authorities;
- or by a similar body and which is announced prior to the departure date of your journey;
- no reimbursement shall be payable if a similar means of transport is made available to the Insured Party by the transport company within 4 hours of the initial time of departure (or arrival in the case of a connecting flight) of the reserved and confirmed flight listed in an official flight schedule;
- the cover shall not take effect for a benign illness or accident that does not require any extension to the journey;
- in the event of force majeure;
- no compensation shall be payable from the moment that the Insured Party accepts reimbursement relating to his/her return journey;
- the Insured Party shall have no right to compensation under the policy in the event that the aforementioned conditions are not respected.

2.3. Physical accidents

In the event of death

Where the Insured Party suffers a bodily injury abroad in a means of public transport and dies as a result of this within 3 years of it occurring, the Company will pay the Beneficiary the amount of 250,000 EUR.

If the Insured Party has not yet reached the age of 5 years at the time of death, only the funeral costs will be reimbursed, up to a maximum of 5,000 EUR.

In the event of permanent disability

Where an Insured Party suffers a bodily injury in a means of public transport during a covered journey and it is established that he/she will be partially or totally disabled as a result, the Company will pay the Insured Party, up to a maximum of 250,000 EUR, the amount corresponding to the physical disability rate recognised to the Insured Party based on the "Barème Officiel Belge des Invalidités" (Official Belgian Disability Schedule).

The disability rate is set upon consolidation of the state of the Insured Party, and no later than three years following the date of the accident.

The disability rates are set exclusive of any professional or educational considerations.

The physical loss of any limbs or organs that were already non-functional prior to the accident shall not give rise to compensation.

Injuries to limbs or organs with pre-existing disabilities shall only be compensated to the extent of the difference in state before and after the accident.

Assessment of injuries to a limb or an organ cannot be influenced by the pre-existing disability status of another limb or organ.

If more than one limb or organ is affected by the same accident, the disability rates shall be cumulative but may not exceed 100%.

In the event of accidental death prior to consolidation of the disability, only the capital provided in the case of death shall be paid out, minus any amounts that may already have been paid out in respect of the disability.

There is no cumulative cover for death and disability where these arise from the same accident.

In the event of permanent partial disability (relative excess)

Permanent disabilities under 20% shall not be compensated. Permanent disabilities over 20% shall be compensated from the first percentage point, meaning from 21%.

2.4. Baggage and Baggage Delays

Theft and loss of baggage

The Company shall reimburse for the following, up to a maximum of 2,500 EUR, upon presentation of documentary proof:

- the theft, aggravated or otherwise, of baggage during a journey covered by this Contract, or;
- the loss of any baggage that is under the responsibility of the transport company. In this case, the Company will only pay compensation supplementary to that payable by the transport company, without exceeding the initial amount provided above.

Baggage

Personal items, other than financial assets, which belong to the Insured Party or for which the Insured Party is responsible; carried, sent on ahead or acquired during a professional assignment or journey abroad.

Baggage delay

Upon presentation of documentary proof, the Company will reimburse emergency purchases of basic necessities (clothing and toiletries that are strictly necessary):

- up to a maximum of 250 EUR, if baggage that is duly checked in arrives more than 4 hours after the arrival time of the Insured Party at his/her flight destination;
- up to an additional maximum of 250 EUR, if baggage that is duly checked in arrives more than 48 hours after the arrival time of the Insured Party at his/her flight destination.

This cover is not valid for the return flight to the country of residence. If it transpires that this baggage has been definitively lost, the compensation paid will be deducted from the compensation awarded for the lost baggage.

Exclusions

The Company will not pay for:

- 1) more than the limit per article of baggage for a pair or set of items;
- 2) the devaluation of a currency or losses owing to mistakes or oversights made at the time of a monetary transaction;
- 3) damage or losses not declared to the police or the transport Company;
- 4) damage owing to confiscation, seizure or detention by the customs or any other authority;
- 5) excesses, except where a single event gives rise to compensation under the Baggage and Baggage Delays cover: in this case only an excess will apply. The term "event" shall also be understood to mean a series of events following, or owing to, a single initial cause;
- 6) the damage or loss of any baggage that is covered by any other insurance or which is the responsibility of the transporter: in this case the Company will only pay a supplement to the compensation that has to be paid by the transporter or the other insurance contract, without exceeding the initially agreed amount.

2.5. Peace of Mind Cover

Territorial scope: all countries

2.5.1 Standard of Living Cover

Loss of employment: the Insured Party must be under a permanent employment contract, have exceeded his/her notice period and been dismissed by his/her employer.

Hospitalisation: the Insured Party is hospitalised for more than 14 consecutive nights following accident or illness.

Cover

The company undertakes to pay for day-to-day family living expenses (telephone, electricity, water, etc.) in the event of loss of income following the death or hospitalisation of the Insured Party and/or his/her spouse for more than 15 days.

Amount of the cover: 1,200 EUR per insured Card for a maximum of 1 year.

Exclusions

Dismissal for gross misconduct, voluntary redundancy, suicide.

2.5.2. Theft of a handbag or wallet with violence and/or threats of violence

Cover

Reimbursement of the repair or replacement expenses of the stolen or damaged handbag and/or wallet of the Insured Party following an assault, threat or violence committed against the Insured Party.

The repair and replacement costs for the handbag and/or wallet shall be paid by the Insurer minus any wear and tear depreciation.

Calculation of wear and tear depreciation: 10% of the purchase price per year, capped at 60% Basic amount of the cover: 500 EUR for a handbag and wallet per claim and per year.

Exclusions:

- simple disappearance or loss of the handbag and/or wallet;
- the contents of the handbag and/or wallet;
- theft that does not involve assault, threats or violence towards the Insured Party;
- theft committed by any person qualifying as an Insured Party.

2.5.3. Cash advance following the theft of a handbag or wallet with violence and/or threats of violence

Cover

The Company will advance the Insured Party a sum of money in cash where the latter has fallen victim to the theft of a handbag and/or wallet following an assault, threats or violence, within a maximum of 3 days following this theft.

The Company shall grant a period of three months from the date of the advance for reimbursement of the advance to the Company.

Basic amount of the cover: 1,000 EUR per claim and per year.

Compensation procedure

The Insurer shall send the amount indicated above by money order or by any other suitable means.

2.5.4. Theft of car keys and/or accommodation keys with violence and/or threats of violence, including lock replacement

Cover

Reimbursement of the costs actually incurred for the replacement of keys (including locks) for the main and/or secondary residence of the Insured Party, as well as the keys to his/her land motor vehicle(s), stolen following an assault, threats or violence towards the Insured Person.

Basic amount of the cover: 500 EUR per claim and per year.

Exclusions:

- simple disappearance or loss of the keys;
- theft that does not involve assault, threats or violence towards the Insured Party;
- theft committed by any person qualifying as an Insured Party.

2.5.5. Personal effects and audio equipment stolen from or damaged in the vehicle of the Insured Party following vehicle theft or break-in

Definitions

Audio equipment: any standard equipment, radios, compact disc players, radio transmitters, GPS, decoders, loudspeakers, television sets and similar devices, provided that this equipment is permanently installed in the vehicle.

Personal effects: any clothing and personal articles (for example: sunglasses, cameras, photography equipment, portable audio and video players, MP3 players, tool kits, child seats, etc.).

Cover

The Insurer shall pay for personal effects and audio equipment stolen from and/or damaged in the vehicle belonging to or rented by the Insured Party, following the theft or break-in of the vehicle belonging to or hired by the Insured Party.

Basic amount of the cover: 1,000 EUR per claim and per calendar year.

The Insurer will cover personal effects and audio equipment for the following types of claim:

a) fire: where the personal effects and audio equipment are damaged in a burned-out vehicle belonging to or rented by the Insured Party;

b) theft or break-in, provided that:

- the boot of the vehicle and the vehicle itself were locked;
- the windows were closed;
- the top was fully closed and locked if the vehicle is convertible;

c) broken windows.

However, this cover is only applicable in the event of break-in to the insured vehicle and where any audio equipment not fixed to the vehicle was not left in full view within the vehicle.

2.5.6. Fuelling

Cover

The Company will cover the costs of fuelling and assistance (towing and siphoning costs) in the event of a mis-fuelling error at the fuel pump.

Basic amount of the cover: 100 EUR per fuelling + 1,000 EUR for assistance (towing and siphoning costs) per claim and per year.

Condition

This cover is acquired for the Insured Party regardless of the vehicle used, provided that the fuelling was paid for using his/her VISA PRESTIGE credit card.

2.6. Purchase Cover

1. Purchase Protection Insurance

Definitions

Accidental damage

Any modification, deterioration, loss and/or destruction of an article or a substance.

Superficial damage

Damage caused to the external parts of the purchased goods that does not jeopardise the proper functioning of the said goods; scratches, for example.

Deterioration

Consequences arising from usage (wear) and/or ageing, such as discolouration.

Jewellery

Any article habitually worn by a person, manufactured entirely or partially using precious metals and or stones. Watches are deemed to be jewellery within the framework of this policy, if they are made of precious metals or if their initial purchase value is greater than 2,500 EUR.

Cover

a. Cover

• Provided that the Card Holder has paid for the purchased goods using his/her VISA PRESTIGE Card, the Company will reimburse the purchase price of stolen goods or, in the case of accidental damage to goods, costs relating to the repair of the damaged goods, including the repairer's shipping costs and the purchase price of the goods if they cannot be repaired or if the repair costs exceed the purchase price.

• Insured Goods

All merchandise purchased, in full or in part, using the VISA PRESTIGE Card, with the exception of: live animals, plants, cash, traveller's cheques, transport tickets, securities or other non-traded instruments, jewellery and precious stones, food products or drinks, automotive vehicles or their parts.

• Insured Merchandise

Merchandise whose unit purchase price amounts to at least 50 EUR.

• Effective starting date of the cover

• Cover period

90 days as of the effective starting date of the cover.

• Cover limit

1,000 EUR per claim up to 2,000 EUR per year per Card Holder.

• Limit

Where only part of the purchase price was paid using the VISA PRESTIGE Card, the claim will be compensated as a proportion of the total purchase amount.

b. Exclusions

The following claims are excluded from the cover:

- damage caused intentionally by the Insured Party or by one of his/her relatives (spouse, descendants or ascendants);
- loss or disappearance;
- superficial damage or deterioration;
- damage caused by wear or by gradual deterioration owing to erosion, corrosion, humidity or the effects of cold or heat;
- damage owing to manufacturing defects;
- damage owing to failure to respect the manufacturer's or distributor's instructions or recommendations concerning the use of the insured goods;

- damage caused by a nuclear reaction or radiation;
- damage caused by war, civil unrest, insurgency, uprising, revolution or acts of terrorism;
- damage caused to insured goods during transport by the retailer;
- damage caused to clothing during cleaning or alteration.

c. Payment of compensation and Beneficiary

Payment of compensation will be made directly to the Beneficiary.

Receipt by the person(s) to whom payments have been made shall constitute full and entire discharge for the Insurer.

Compensation is payable in the local currency of the country of residence of the VISA PRESTIGE Card Holder, at the average EURO exchange rate applicable on the date of the claim.

2. Electronics Insurance Cover

Definitions

Insured Device: portable electronic devices (GPS, iPod, PDA, etc.), accessories and consumables relating to the operation of the covered Device (hands-free kit, charger, battery, additional cards, various cartridges, recordable media, cassettes, films, camera films, batteries and more generally all accessories associated with the covered Device).

Mobile telephones are excluded.

Replacement device: a new device identical to the covered Device or, if this model is no longer sold or available, a new technically equivalent device. The value of the replacement device may not, however, exceed the value of the covered device on the date of its purchase.

Wear: gradual deterioration of the covered Device or one or more of its constituent parts, as a result of its use.

Aggravated Theft: any theft of the covered Device committed by a Third Party involving an Assault or a Break-in.

Cover

The Insurer will pay the repair or replacement costs of portable electronic devices (GPS, iPods, PDA, etc.) purchased new using the VISA PRESTIGE Card, in the case of theft, aggravated or otherwise, or accidental damage, within a limit of 3 months following the purchase of the device. Where the repair costs exceed the replacement value, the Insurer will compensate an amount equivalent to the purchase price of a replacement device.

Similarly, in the case of theft, aggravated or otherwise, the Insurer will pay out a value corresponding to the purchase price of a replacement device.

Amount of the cover: 1,000 EUR per insured Card per year.

Exclusions

Specific exclusions to "Accidental Damage" cover:

- fire damage;
- damage caused by a hidden defect (in materials or construction);
- damage caused to external parts of the covered Device that do not affect its operation, such as scratches, peeling and scuffs;
- damage arising from the inappropriate usage of the device;
- estimate fees, whether or not followed by a repair;
- upkeep, maintenance, renovation, modification, improvement or adjustment costs for the covered Device.

Exclusions common to all cover:

- damage arising from a natural disaster;
- the deliberate or wilful fault of the Insured Party or any person other than a Third Party;
- any claim arising more than 3 months after the date of purchase of the covered Device.

Compensation procedure

Any accidental material damage: the Insurer will pay the repair costs for the covered Device. Where the repair cost exceeds the replacement value, the Insurer will reimburse the Insured Party the amount corresponding to the purchase price of a replacement device.

In the case of theft, aggravated or otherwise, the Insurer will pay out a value corresponding to the purchase price of a replacement device.

2.7 Internet Cover

Delivery insurance for goods purchased over the Internet.

2.7.1 Definitions

Third Party

Any person other than the Insured Party, his/her spouse or legal cohabitant, his/her ascendants or descendants.

Covered Goods

Movable physical goods for private use purchased new over the Internet from a retailer, provided that it is shipped by post or by a private transporter, whose unit value is between 50 EUR and 2,000 EUR including tax (shipping costs included).

Retailer

Any retailer offering the covered Goods for sale over the Internet.

Non-compliant delivery

The covered Goods received do not match the manufacturer's or distributor's article reference as indicated on the purchase order, or the covered Goods are delivered faulty, broken or incomplete.

Non-delivery

The delivery of the covered Goods did not take place within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of the account statement or debit notice.

Internet payment

Payment transaction made using a Visa Prestige Card issued by POST Finance for the purchase goods, with or without entering the PIN code, without signed invoices and whose total amount is debited from the account of the Insured Party.

Claim

Occurrence of an event insured by this cover.

2.7.2 Cover - Delivery of goods purchased over the Internet

In the event of a delivery incident following the purchase of covered Goods over the Internet, the Insured Party can benefit from delivery insurance under the conditions set out below. Payment for the covered Goods must have been made using the insured Card and during the period of validity. The debit corresponding to this purchase must appear on the card statement.

2.7.3 Compensation procedure

In the event of non-delivery of the covered Goods and if no satisfactory amicable solution has been found with the retailer, the Company or the Insured Party (at the latest on the 90th day following the payment debit for the covered Goods), the Company will reimburse the Insured Party of the amount corresponding to the purchase price, including tax (including shipping costs) of the covered Goods, within the limit of the amounts actually paid to the retailer and within the capping limits set out in the section "amount of compensation per claim and per year".

In the event of delivery of non-compliant covered Goods:

- if the retailer agrees to the return of the covered Goods, subsequent shipping replacement Goods or reimbursing the Insured Party, this policy covers costs of re-shipping covered Goods to the retailer, if these costs are not borne by the retailer;
- if the retailer agrees to the return of the covered Goods but does not ship the replacement goods or reimburse the Insured Party, the policy covers the costs of re-shipping and reimbursement of the purchase price of the covered Goods (shipping costs included);
- if the retailer does not agree to the return of the covered Goods, this policy covers the costs of re-shipping the covered Goods sent to the Company and reimbursement of the purchase price (shipping costs included).

The purchase price of the covered Goods shall be understood to include tax, within the limit of the amounts actually paid to the retailer.

The Company reserves the right to arrange an expert report or inquiry, at its own cost, to assess the circumstances and amount of the damage.

Details

Any Insured Party or Beneficiary who intentionally supplies false information, makes false statements regarding the date, nature, causes, circumstances and consequences of the Loss or Damage or uses false or falsified documents with the intention of defrauding the Company, shall lose all rights to cover for the Loss or Damage in question.

All necessary measures must be taken immediately to limit the consequences of the Loss or Damage and hasten the recovery of the Insured Party, who must undergo the appropriate medical treatment for his/her state of health.

The agents or doctors appointed by the Company shall, unless provided with justified opposition, have free access to the Insured Party to observe his/her state of health and, where necessary, to proceed with an autopsy. The Insured Party agrees that medical information regarding his/her state of health may be sent to an expert doctor acting for the Company.

Any unjustified refusal to comply with this check, pursuant to formal notice provided by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt, shall lead to forfeiture of the rights of the Insured Party.

In the event of any delay attributable to the Insured Party regarding the insurance claim or in the communication of information, and if the Company decides that this delay is detrimental to him/her, the Insured Party shall bear the cost of any consequences of this delay himself/herself, to the extent of the harm suffered by the Company.

SECTION III - GENERAL POINTS

Article 4 - Recourse against liable third parties

The Company waives all recourse against third parties responsible for or bearing civil liability for the accident, loss or damage, to the benefit of the Insured Parties and Beneficiaries. It does, however, reserve the right of recourse to recover processing costs spent by it by virtue of the cover provided in Article 2.1 above.

Article 5 - Cessation of cover

The cover terminates automatically for each Insured Party.

The cover will come to an end on the cancellation date of the insured VISA PRESTIGE Card. This Contract may also be terminated annually by the Policy Holder or the Insurer. In the event of termination of this Contract, the Policy Holder shall notify the Insured Party with 3 months' notice, and the Insurer undertakes to cover the Insured Party until the end of the period covered by the last premium paid by the Policy Holder, without the possibility of individual renewal.

Article 6 - Intervention limit

If more than one Insured Party is affected by the same event, the total amount of the compensation paid out by the company shall under no circumstances exceed the amount stated for the various cover levels.

If the total of the capitals covered individually for each of the Insured Parties' claims exceeds this amount, the compensation for each shall be reduced proportionally and settled based on the capital covered for each of the victims.

Article 7 - Complaints

In the event of any issue relating to the conditions of the insurance, the Insured Party may write to Chubb, chaussée de la Hulpe 166, B-1170 Brussels, Belgium.

Article 8 - Use of languages

These Terms and Conditions are issued in French. Any translation of these Terms and Conditions is provided for information only and, in the event of a dispute, the Terms and Conditions given in French shall prevail.

Article 9 - Applicable law and jurisdiction

Group Insurance Contract No BEBOAA00858 is governed by Luxembourg law.

Unless otherwise explicitly stated, the relationship between the parties to the aforesaid Contract is subject to Luxembourg law. Only the courts of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg shall have competence in respect of any dispute between the parties. The parties may, however, bring the dispute before any other jurisdiction that would normally have had competence regarding the Beneficiary of the insurance, had the above jurisdiction not been chosen.

Article 10 - Legal proceedings

Any legal proceedings arising from a compensable claim under this policy will be statute-barred under the provisions of Luxembourg law.

Article 11 - Clause attributing competence

This policy shall be exclusively governed by Luxembourg law, and any dispute arising from it shall be exclusively heard by the courts and tribunals of Luxembourg, unless otherwise stated in the terms and conditions of the policy.
